VI. ORAL HEARINGS

A. MOTIONS

Pursuant to Rule 19 of the Juvenile Rules and Rule 7 (B)(2) of the Civil Rules, it shall be the policy of this Court that all Motions shall be considered and decided without oral hearing unless one of the parties requests such hearing, or the Court determines that a hearing would be advisable. Motions will be decided upon brief written statements of reasons in support thereof and opposition thereto.

B. OBJECTIONS TO MAGISTRATE'S DECISIONS

1. Objections shall be considered and decided without oral hearing unless one of the parties requests such hearing, and for good cause shown, or the Court determines that a hearing would be advisable. Oral argument, if it is to occur, shall be set after all briefs have been filed, or the time for filing has expired.
2. The Court may, upon its own motion or written motion, and at such times as appropriate, determine factual objections by reviewing the audio or video tape of the proceeding. If the Court determines that the use of audio or video tape is appropriate, copies of such tapes shall be provided to all counsel.

VII. MEDIA ATTENDANCE

Pursuant to Rules 27 and 37 of the Ohio Rules of Juvenile Procedure, and to the Ohio Revised Code, all Juvenile Court proceedings and records are within the control of and subject to the discretion of the Judge. This rule, therefore, may be amended, changed or overridden on a case by case basis when, in the discretion of the Court, the best interest of the child requires more stringent or total confidentiality.

Notwithstanding the above, it shall be the general procedure of this Court that the media may attend all cases in which there is an allegation of delinquency or unruliness, subject to the following conditions:

1. No media representative shall report the name of the accused child or otherwise identify the child or the child's family.
2. No media representative shall report the name of any victim if such victim is under the age of eighteen (18) years, nor shall they otherwise identify the victim or the victim's family.
3. No information shall be published relative to the child's social history, personal or educational background, or mental or physical condition, or that of the child's family, without prior consent of the Court.
4. The media shall advise the Court, in advance, if they intend to record the proceedings in any manner, other than written notes. If the recording is to be audio or visual, then the voices and faces of anyone under age eighteen (18) will be distorted, or blacked out, so that identification is impossible.
5. Due to the potential confidential nature of the proceedings, all media representatives wishing to be admitted must arrive at the hearing room prior to commencement of the hearing, and present proper identification.
6. Any media representatives wishing to attend hearings as set out above will be required to sign in, which signature will indicate their agreement to abide by the above provisions.

This rule is specifically inapplicable to cases of abuse, neglect or dependency, which cases shall be determined separately after a hearing is held pursuant to the rulings of the Supreme Court of Ohio.

VIII. TIME LIMITS FOR REIMBURSEMENT OF COUNTY EXPENDITURES FOR ASSIGNED COUNSEL

In order for the County to be reimbursed for assigned counsel expenditures, invoices for such services must be submitted within ninety (90) days of the end of the calendar month in which the case was terminated. In order to meet those guidelines, the Juvenile Court of Lake County must have the invoices for such services within eighty (80) days of the end of the calendar month in which the case was terminated.

Any invoices submitted beyond this deadline will mean that the County cannot be reimbursed for such fees and, therefore, the fees approved will automatically be reduced by forty percent (40%), which is equal to the amount of reimbursement lost.

This Rule is not to be interpreted as in any way limiting the ability of assigned counsel to file interim billings.

IX. ELECTRONIC FILING STANDARDS

A. FILINGS BY ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSION

1. The provisions of this local rule are adopted under Rule 8 of the Ohio Rules of Juvenile Procedure, subject to the provisions and exceptions set out below.

C. EXCEPTIONS

1. Facsimile or email filing of Complaints in delinquency and unruly cases shall be accepted only when an emergency exists requiring an immediate hearing and no officer is available to deliver the original Complaint. The Court will accept such facsimile or email filing upon the condition that an original shall be filed within twenty-four hours.
2. In the event an original signed pleading is not received in delinquency or unruly cases, within the twenty-four-hour period, then the facsimile or email filing shall be considered null and void and will be dismissed sua sponte.

3. The digital signature shall be linked to the data in the electronic document to which it pertains in such a manner so as to assure that if the data are changed after the digital signature is entered, the digital signature shall be invalidated. Such invalidation shall be readily detectable in both the digitally stored signed document and in any paper copy of that document generated from the digitally stored data.

XIII. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL AND PRIVATE INFORMATION IN RECORDS OF THE COURT

The following information is deemed "personal and private" and may not be included in a public record:

1. Social Security number;
2. Full financial account number (it may be listed as “-----1234”); and
3. Any other information deemed personal and private by any federal or state statute, regulation, executive order, or court ruling.

It is the responsibility of the filing party and counsel to remove personal and private information from a document filed with the Clerk of this Court. The responsibility of the filing party and counsel to remove personal and private information extends to and includes exhibits or addenda attached to filings, such as preliminary and final judicial reports which itemize state tax liens that use Social Security numbers as case numbers, or medical records.

The Clerk and deputy clerks shall have no responsibility for the removal of any personal and private information filed in a public document in the Clerk’s office of the Juvenile Court.

Personal and private information must be submitted in a separate filing which will be deemed by the Court as a non-public record. The information will be kept in a separate envelope within the case file marked as follows:

The enclosed personal and private information has been deemed by the Court as non-public. It is for the use of the Court, the attorneys of record listed in the case, and the Clerk of Court’s office only. Any other person must have a Court order to view the contents of this envelope.

Journal entries that necessarily include personal and private information must be submitted to the Clerk’s office as follows: a copy that includes the personal and private information for placement in the non-public envelope, and a copy with personal and private information redacted for placement in the public file. The copy not containing the personal and private information (for the public file) will have the notation “personal and private information redacted” at all places in the document where such information was removed. The Court will sign both journal entries.

The Clerk will not remove any personal and private information from a stamp-filed document, including records or transcripts transmitted to this Court from another Court, without a Court order to do so. The Clerk may refuse to accept for filing any document that contains personal and private information that has not been redacted or submitted in accordance with this order.

Any personal and private information in documents filed prior to the implementation of this rule is considered public. Any personal and private information in records or transcripts transmitted to this Court from another Court is considered public. A party or an attorney in a case, or any other person whose personal and private information is contained in a public record of this Court, may petition the Court for the removal of personal and private information, and if the request is granted, the personal and private information will be removed from a stamp-filed document and placed in a separate envelope and deemed a non-public record.

All public documents filed with the Clerk of Court’s office may be imaged and be placed on the Court’s website for viewing.

XXIII. MEDIATION

- A. All provisions of R.C. Chapter 2710, the "Ohio Uniform Mediation Act," including all definitions found in R.C. 2710.01, are incorporated by reference and adopted by this Court through this local rule.
- B. All cases involving the allocation of parental rights and responsibilities for the care of a child shall be eligible for mediation pursuant to this local rule.
- C. Except as otherwise provided in R.C. 2710.05, all mediation communications, as defined in R.C. 2710.01(B), are privileged and are generally not subject to discovery or admissible as evidence in a proceeding, in accordance with R.C. 2710.03. The Court Mediator shall explain all provisions regarding confidentiality and privilege of mediation communications to the participants prior to engaging in mediation.
- D. Mediation shall not be used as an alternative to the prosecution or adjudication of domestic violence; in determining whether to grant, modify, or terminate a protection order; in determining the terms and conditions of a protection order; and in determining the penalty for violation of a protection order. Nothing in this local rule shall prohibit the use of mediation in a subsequent custody case, even though the case may result in the termination of the provisions of a protection order pursuant to R.C. 3113.31.

E. The Court Mediator will maintain information for the public and Court personnel as appropriate. The information will include: 1) attorney referral contact information; 2) information regarding Children Services; and 3) resource information for local domestic violence support services, counseling, and substance abuse and mental health services. The Court Mediator shall provide such information as appropriate to the participants of mediation.

F. Procedure

1. The Judge or Magistrate may refer or order a case to mediation or to return to mediation at any point in a case. Any party may request to participate in mediation by filing a motion or joint motion with the court, or by making an oral request for a referral to mediation on the record.
2. Prior to referring a case to mediation, the Court shall screen for drug abuse, domestic abuse and domestic violence, and for the capacity of the parties to mediate. Specifically in regard to domestic abuse and domestic violence, the Court shall consider whether any of the following apply to the case:
 - a. Whether either parent previously has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a violation of R.C. 2919.25 involving a victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a member of the family or household that is the subject of the proceeding.
 - b. Whether either parent previously has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to an offense involving a victim who at the time of the commission of the offense was a member of the family or household that is the subject of the proceeding and caused physical harm to the victim in the commission of the offense.
 - c. Whether either parent has been determined to be the perpetrator of the abusive act that is the basis of an adjudication that a child is an abused child.

In such cases, the Court may schedule a Mediation Screening Hearing. The Court may only refer the case to mediation if it determines that it is in the best interests of the parties to order mediation and makes specific written findings of fact to support its determination. In all cases, the Court Mediator shall be under a continuing obligation to screen for drug abuse, domestic abuse and domestic violence, and for the capacity of the parties to mediate during the mediation.

3. The Court Mediator will give notice to all parties and their attorneys, if any, of the time, date, locations, and means (electronic or in person) in whatever manner is appropriate given time constraints and other considerations. A mediator may schedule multiple mediation sessions as is necessary in a case.
4. Once a case has been referred to mediation, the proceedings shall be stayed until and unless the Court Mediator notifies the Court that the Mediation has been unsuccessful and has been terminated, and the matter is referred to the Court for formal action.
5. Parties who are ordered into mediation must attend scheduled mediation sessions and proceed in good faith. Attendance by counsel is encouraged but optional. Other individuals designated by a party may attend and participate in mediation upon the prior written approval of the Mediator and provided that such attendance or participation does not jeopardize the mediation process. In any case where a Guardian ad litem has been appointed, the Guardian must attend mediation. If any individual ordered by the Court to attend mediation fails to attend mediation without good cause, the Court may impose sanctions which may include, but are not limited to, the award of attorney's fees and other costs, contempt, or other appropriate sanctions at the discretion of the Judge or Magistrate. Continuances of scheduled mediations shall be granted only for good cause shown after a mutually acceptable future date has been determined.

6. Each party may submit to the Court Mediator a summary of facts and circumstances of the dispute together with any arguments in support of their case. Parties shall provide any additional information or material which they believe will aid the mediator in understanding the dispute or which the Court Mediator requests relevant to the issues at hand.
7. The Court Mediator may schedule such sessions as are necessary to complete the mediation process and the process shall continue until terminated by resolution or the mediator determines that continuation of the mediation procedure would be futile. Upon conclusion of the mediation, the Court shall be informed as follows:
 - a. If the mediation reaches an impasse, the Court Mediator should report the lack of an agreement to the Court without comment or recommendation, unless there are specific issues upon which the parties agree and the parties agree in writing to submit their agreement on such issues to the Court without fully resolving the case. In such cases, the issues upon which the parties agree shall be reduced to writing and signed by the parties. In either case, the matter will be referred to the Court for further hearing; or
 - b. If an agreement is reached, the agreement shall be reduced to writing and signed by the parties, and an appropriate judgment entry reflecting the settlement shall be submitted to the Court for approval. If an attorney is not present at the mediation conference and the parties reach an agreement, the attorney will be sent a copy of the proposed mediation agreement by the Court to review prior to the client signing the agreement. If the agreement is approved by the parties and attorneys, the Court shall either hold a confirmation hearing to approve the terms of the agreement or adopt a Judgment Entry submitted by the parties for the Court's review and approval. If the Court does not adopt the agreement, the Court shall not consider the mediation agreement for any other purpose.

G. Mediation Costs

The Judge or Magistrate may assess mediation court costs for the actual costs of mediation incurred by the parties as permitted by law.

- H. It is the policy of the Court to use mediation to benefit the parties, to assist in reaching a resolution, and to provide a process that is timely and flexible that maintains the trust and confidence of the people. Any mediation participant may submit written comments, complaints, or feedback regarding the performance of the Court Mediator to the Court Administrator.

XXIV. RECORDING OF PROCEEDINGS AND TRANSCRIPTS

- A. Pursuant to Juvenile Court Rule 37, a record of all proceedings governed by such rule shall be taken by digital recording, court reporter, or any other adequate means, and no public use shall be made of such record or transcription of such record, except in the course of an appeal or as authorized by order of the court or by statute.

B. Requests for Transcripts

All requests for transcripts shall be by written motion. In all cases in which a court reporter has not already been assigned by the Court, the requesting party shall include in its motion the name of a court reporter requested by the party and the rate of compensation for such court reporter. In the event such party is unable to obtain a court reporter, the motion shall set forth the names of any court reporter such party has contacted and who have declined to accept any such assignment, and the Court will assign a court reporter. Once the Court receives a properly filed motion, the Court shall order a transcription of the record, assign a court reporter, and set a due date for the transcript to be filed in its order. The Clerk of Courts shall prepare the necessary materials and advise the court reporter that the materials are ready for pick up. If the matter involves an appeal, the court reporter shall deliver the transcript to the Clerk of Court, who shall deliver the transcript with any exhibits and supporting trial court documentation to the appellate court. If the matter involves an order granting transcription for purposes other than an appeal and the requesting party is the prosecuting attorney, the state or any of its political subdivisions or an indigent party in a delinquency or permanent custody case, the court reporter shall deliver the transcript to the Clerk of Court, who shall inform the requestor that the transcript is ready to be picked up at the Clerk's Office. In all other cases, the court reporter shall notify the requestor that the transcript is ready and the court reporter and the requestor are responsible to arrange pick up.

C. Payment for Transcripts

1. Transcription at State Expense

In all delinquency and permanent custody cases in which the requesting party is found by the Court to be indigent, or when the requesting party is the prosecuting attorney, the state or any of its political subdivisions, or upon the Court's own motion, the compensation for transcription shall be paid from the county treasury and taxed and collected as costs.

2. Transcription at Party Expense

In all other cases, the party or person requesting a transcript shall be directly responsible for making payment arrangements with the court reporter.
